

Tandara Traineeship 2022

Application Details

Thank you for your interest in applying for Tandara's Traineeship Program of personal growth and challenge for young Christian adults.

Discipleship, Christian character development, community, mission and hospitality skills development, and delivery of adventure based programs - form the focus of the Traineeship experience.

The objective is to provide a strong, consolidated biblical foundation for young adults, from which to face the many challenges and choices in life. Living, learning and serving in the camp community provide the context for this integrated program of biblical instruction and life experience that will see your life transformed as you journey with the Lord through many new relationships, challenges and experiences.

The Application Process

1. Please complete this application form prayerfully, thoughtfully and honestly. There are no right or wrong answers. Feel free to contact the Manager should you have any questions.
2. Please return your completed application with two Passport size photos to:

The Manager
Tandara Lutheran Camp
PO Box 50 Halls Gap
Victoria. 3381
Email: manager@camptandara.com
3. After completed applications have been received and processed applicants will be contacted regarding the next process. This will include a phone or personal interview. The final step includes an onsite visit and interview, for both you and your parents.
4. The successful applicants will be notified and sent further information regarding commencement of the internship and employment information.

- Write your response to the following statement about life at Tandara...

*A Traineeship at Tandara is very different to any you would experience. God refines and matures us through the tough times. Life at Tandara involves repetitive work, living and working in a small staff community in a country setting. You need to be willing to sacrifice your personal time and space, and to be on call. You will miss important family events throughout your year at Tandara. The blessing comes from being a servant, being willing to put others first, and being teachable. Referees

To assist in evaluating your application please supply the names of three people who know you well and who are willing to be referees for you.

Please select one from each category:

- Employer/Volunteer supervisor
- Christian Mentor/Friend
- Pastor/Elder/Teacher

Please note relatives are not acceptable as referees.
